

Published March 30, 2012, 12:00 AM

Dona Wambsganss

---

Dona Wambsganss, owner of Business Specialities CPAs in Grand Forks, has expanded her business from an in-home operation to a firm that now employs seven. The number of women-owned businesses in North Dakota has increased to an estimated 18,400, an increase of 48.2 percent since 1997. JOHN STENNES

Read the article: N.D. sees big gains in number of women-owned businesses